Mr. Eric Hoffman, Guidance Office
Manasquan High School
Broad Street
Manasquan, NJ 08736

Dear Mr. Hoffman,

The members of the Squan Village Historical Society are offering two $500 Scholarships for the year of 2012. They will be awarded to one girl and one boy.

This opportunity is open to any qualified student by writing a letter, not to exceed 200 words, explaining their need and enclosing a copy of their high school records. The students will be eligible for consideration of these scholarships if they live in Manasquan, have a background or interest in history and are presently Seniors in Manasquan High School. The application should be mailed to Richard Dunne, President, Squan Village Historical Society, 105 South Street, Manasquan, and must be received by the historical society by April 1, 2012.

The Squan Village Historical Society is pleased to have this opportunity to assist these students as they further their education.

Sincerely,

Richard Dunne, President
Squan Village Historical Society
