Re: Mid-Term Exams Update

Dear Parent/Guardian/Students:

In the event of a school closure or early dismissal tomorrow, Friday, January 19th, students should continue to prepare and study for the upcoming mid-term exams. Manasquan High School will operate on the previously scheduled ½ day schedule for exams, beginning Monday January 22nd through Thursday January 25th. Teachers are preparing additional exam review on our digital workflow CANVAS, so students should check-in during the weekend. Friday, January 26th, remains the in-service day for teachers and our students do not have school per the district calendar. The second semester and 3rd marking period will begin Monday, January 29th. Students who miss an exam must inform the administrative main office. Students who missed an exam(s) will be scheduled for makeup exams and will be notified of a scheduled time.

Students must remain in class for the entire exam period, to avoid disruption of the testing environment for other students and maintain the integrity of the exams. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

If you have any concerns regarding this event, please feel free to contact me at 732.528.8820, ext. 1000 or rgoodall@mansquan.k12.nj.us to discuss your concerns or questions.

Sincerely,

Robert Goodall
HS Principal
